4. Purposes for processing the personal data

4.1

We only process personal data for legitimate purposes in accordance with the GDPR. Depending on the circumstances, the personal data is processed for the following purposes:

- a) To deliver products or services to a user, customer or member.
- b) To send direct marketing to users, customers or members.
- c) To prevent fraudulent behavior or misuse of the IT System.
- d) To send newsletters on e-mail.
- e) To give support and service messages, including answering questions and complaints and send updates about our products and services.
- f) To prevent fraudulent behavior or misuse of our products, services and website, including the processing of personal data for the purpose of legal actions.
- g) To improve our products, services or website.
- h) To facilitate a sales process.

5. Legal basis for processing personal data

5.1

We only process your personal data when we have a legal basis to do so in accordance with the GDPR. Depending on the specific circumstances, the processing of personal data is done on the following legal basis:

- a) The processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests where such interests are not overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, cf. the GDPR, article 6(1)(f).
- b) The processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party, cf. the GDPR, article 6(1)(b), the first indent.
- c) If we have asked for a consent for the processing of specific personal data, the legal basis for such personal data is a consent, cf. article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR, as the consent can always be withdrawn by contacting us via the contact details provided at the end of this Policy, and, if the consent is withdrawn, the personal data processed on the basis of consent is deleted, unless it can or must be processed, for example, in order to comply with legal obligations.

If we send you direct marketing, including by email, we will ask for your prior consent in accordance with the applicable rules such as marketing acts.

6. Disclosure and transfer of personal data

6.1

We only pass on personal data to others when the law allows it or requires it. Our company is part of a concern/company group where personal data is shared between the group companies depending on the circumstances.

7. Erasure and retention of personal data

We ensure that the personal data is deleted when it is no longer relevant for the processing purposes as described above. We also retain personal data to the extent that it is an obligation from applicable law, as is the case with for example accounting and bookkeeping materials and records. If you have any questions about our retention of personal data, please contact the email mentioned in section 10 of this Policy.

8. Data subject rights

8.1 Data subjects have a number of rights that we can assist with. If a data subject wants to make use of his or her rights, he or she can contact us. The rights include the following:

8.1.1

The right of access: Data subjects have a right to ask for copies of the information that we process about them, including relevant additional information.

8.1.2
